

sense
for deafblind people

Getting a result!

A new DVD to encourage the participation of young deafblind people in the transitional planning process

The DVD helps professionals to

- understand the communication methods used by deafblind young people
- make plans that allow individuals to participate effectively
- develop insights into the role of families and carers
- understand the role of intervenors and support staff who work in communication roles
- make decisions about service provision in a genuinely collaborative way

Getting a result! – DVD order form

Please use this form to order your free copy of the “Getting a result!” DVD from Sense.

Name: _____

Company/organization: _____

Address: _____

Post code: _____

Daytime telephone number: () _____

E-Mail address: _____

Quantity of DVDs _____

Delivery address:

(Please indicate the delivery address if it is different to that above)

Please send your order to:

Information & Advice Service,

Sense, 101 Pentonville Road, London N1 9LG

Registered charity number: 289868

