

Woodside Family Centre, Kingswood, Bristol

The centre is for children and adults who have either a single or multi-sensory impairment, including deafblindness and associated disabilities. It can also be used by families, carers, teachers and other professionals associated with deafblindness.

The centre is open throughout the year, though is only staffed weekdays between 9am - 5pm. Families are welcome to visit informally (by appointment) or phone to book.

Meet the staff

Helen Potter

Hello, I am a Family Support Worker based at the Woodside Family Centre Bristol.

Part of the role of the Family Support Worker is to offer advice and support to children and families at home, at Woodside or within their local provision if appropriate.

Helen Gleed

Hello, I am a Woodside Family Centre's part time administrator.

Saturday club

This is run by parents on the third Saturday of every month. Email the office for more information.
