

Campaign materials

Here you will find information about taking effective action. You can also read past copies of newsletters, describing campaigning successes that deafblind people have had.

See Me Hear Me information pack

The See Me Hear Me information pack is full of useful information for deafblind campaigners. It is available in print, large print, audiotape, braille, CD or email. For your copy, please email liz.ball@sense.org.uk.

See Me Hear Me case study video

The See Me Hear Me BSL/subtitled video illustrates the information from the information pack. It is based on a true story about a deaf-visually impaired person campaigning for a Deaf Alerter to be installed in a library. View the video online or read the text transcript.

See Me Hear Me campaign factsheets

If you're looking for short 'top tips' on campaigning, try our series of See Me Hear Me campaign factsheets. These are also available in print, large print, audiotape, Braille, CD, email and BSL/subtitled DVD. To request copies, please email liz.ball@sense.org.uk.

Newsletters archive

You can read about campaigning by deafblind people, in past issues of the See Me Hear Me newsletter.

Test yourself

And if you want to test your knowledge of campaigning, try out our See Me Hear Me quiz.

For more information email liz.ball@sense.org.uk.