

Your Rights, Your Say event

Help to shape Sense's work on improving your rights

Saturday 25 July 2009, 10:30am – 4pm, London

All deafblind people and their families welcome.

Share ideas on:

- what needs to be done to enable you to be more included in your local community
- other changes that would give you a better quality of life
- which services and facilities most need to be made more deafblind friendly
- how streets and transport could be made deafblind accessible
- what Sense and you could do to improve your rights
- how Sense should support you.
