

Amitabh Bachchan

Known simply as “the Godfather of Bollywood” Amitabh Bachchan became acutely aware of deafblind issues when he starred in the award-winning Indian film Black, in which he plays the tutor of a deaf and blind girl.

He has appeared in over 200 films and was voted the BBC’s Star of the Millennium in 1999. Mr Bachchan visited the Sense Rodney Clark Centre in Leeds in June 2007, where he met deafblind people and communicated through sign language.
