

Your chance to be on BBC One and support deafblind people

BBC One's Trash to Cash TV programme is looking for people who are keen to turn the unwanted clutter in their homes into cash for themselves and a charity organisation of their choice, which we're hoping will be Sense!

They'll help you recycle, refurbish and repair your clutter, and raise some cash to share between you, your family and Sense.

If you have no junk at home but you know your family, friends or colleagues who are hoarders and their homes are over run by clutter then Trash to Cash would like you to contact them.

If you are interested please contact Nicole Julien-Connage of Trash to Cash at Reef TV production company on 020 7539 2027 or trashtocash@reeftv.com / nicole.julien-connage@reeftv.com. They are now filming so please contact us as soon as possible.
