

November 2009

- Missed opportunity at Health Select Committee Sense is disappointed that no sensory organisations have been called to give evidence at the Health Select Committee's inquiry into the future of social care, and that the focus has been on personal care. 26 November 2009
- Sense International celebrates 10 years HRH The Princess Royal attended a tenth birthday celebration on 18 November. Originally part of Sense, Sense International became independent in 1999. 18 November 2009
- 'Battleshops' smashes fundraising target On 11 November, longstanding corporate supporter Lombard took over four Sense shops in a fundraising battle. They have so far raised over £30,000 for Sense. 13 November 2009
- It's the Social Care green paper - NOT the Personal Care green paper! Read about the response Sense has submitted to the Government, on its green paper about how to pay for social care in the future - and why it matters a lot to people who are deafblind. 12 November 2009
- Annual Lecture 2009: The Pursuit of Happiness Professor Richard Schoch and Paul Hart spoke powerfully at the Institute of Physics in London, exploring happiness, and how deafblind people can achieve it. 6 November 2009
- Snap up one-off Christmas bargains in our shopping showdown on 11 November Head to one of four Sense charity shops in the Midlands, to get your hands on unique Christmas bargains in our exciting fundraising retail event - Battleshops. 6 November 2009
- Sense awarded a BBC Children in Need grant Sense has been awarded a second three-year grant from BBC Children in Need for funding our services in the Wales region. The grant of £112,425 is the highest made to any organisation in Wales. 3 November 2009
