

Getting a result! - a guide to participating in the transition planning process

This booklet has been designed for use by families and young people who are deafblind and multi-sensory-impaired who are going through the formal process of moving from school to adult life. It provides clear information about how the process called "transition planning" works, helping the reader to navigate the formal system and encouraging a focus on the things that matter to them. It has been designed to encourage effective participation.

It also contains information that can help the professionals to understand the impact of deafblindness and, as a result, forge a positive working partnership with families and young people.

There is also a free DVD to accompany this booklet. Please download the order form below and send back to the address provided on the downloaded form.
