

Talking Sense: Sense's magazine

Talking Sense is the leading magazine about deafblindness and associated disabilities. It offers news, comment and analysis of the issues that matter to deafblind people, their families and the professionals who work with them.

Talking Sense is available in a range of formats and is published three times a year.

Subscriptions

If you would like to subscribe to Talking Sense, please request a copy of the subscription form by post.

Talking Sense articles

A selection of the most popular articles are below which have appeared in Sense's magazine over the past few years..

- Children and families
- Education
- Supporting adults with congenital deafblindness
- Working with deafblind people and their families
- Acquired deafblindness
- Usher syndrome
- Older people
- Membership and self-help
- Rights and entitlements

©2012 Sense

Sense, 101 Pentonville Road, London N1 9LG, Tel.: 0845 127 0060, Text 0845 127 0062, email: info@sense.org.uk

Charity No. 289868

Built on Cubik

Sign In Sign Up