Antiques and collectables

Whether it is an autographed piece of memorabilia, an antique or modern collectable, all Sense shops have something special to offer the casual browser. However, some pieces simply have to be offered to a wider and more appreciative audience, if the donation is to realise its full potential. Such items are sometimes sold via our very own online Sense antique and collectables shop on eBay or at specialist auction houses.

Books, music and media

All Sense shops accept donations of and sell books, audio books, CDs, DVDs, vinyl records, cassettes and videos.

Our online Sense bookshop on eBay sells both collectable books and vintage vinyl. We have also started selling on Amazon.

Furniture shops

A number of Sense shops sell good quality furniture. These shops accept and can arrange for collections of furniture.

If you have an item of furniture you wish to donate to support Sense, please contact your local Sense shop or nearest warehouse for more information.

Please note that due to the cost involved in the safe disposal of older foam filled furniture, all shops reserve the right to refuse certain types of furniture.

Wedding outfits
