

Where your donation goes

Sense seeks to support deafblind people in whatever way they need us, and for however long. Your donation is vital in ensuring we can continue to provide this full-time, long-term support. Click the boxes below to find out how your donations help, or view the shopping list.

- Individual assessments Information about individual assessments

- Advice and support More about Advice and support

- Family centres About family centres and day care

- Specialist equipment More information about specialist equipment

- Saturday clubs Info about Saturday clubs and family days

- Holidays Info about holidays

Read stories of people we support:

Jay's story

- Jay is a little boy receiving specialist help with his communication and education.

Janet's story

- Janet has Usher, but this hasn't prevented her from becoming highly qualified.

Samantha's story

- Samantha communicates by using hand-on-hand signing.

Sue and Andy's story

- Sue and Andy met through Sense eight years ago.

Edith's story

- At 96, Edith can talk the hind leg off a donkey...